

"If so, let me bring Sir Jaspet Meek or Penrose fisher, or Holmes".

There was a sudden rush and scuffle, followed by the clash of iron and sudden cry of pain. There was a click of handcuffs. Holmes asked me to come in.

"Sorry, Watson, I was rude to you. I undermined your capability as a doctor. It was just to get Smith here. And I didn't want you to know that I was not ill."

"But your appearance--?" I said.

"Three days, fasting and the make-up did the trick."

"The coins?"

"Oh! That was only to prove that I was delirious," he laughed. "I need to eat now, Watson. Mr. Smith killed his nephew and he wanted to kill me the same way to avoid imprisonment. I need to eat now, Watson. I think that something nutritious at Simpsons' would not be out of place. And thank you, Watson," he said.

i. What explanation did Holmes give for speaking rudely to Watson?

j. How was Holmes able to look sick?

About the Author

Sir Arthur Ignatius Conan Doyle (1859-1930) was a British writer best known for his detective fiction featuring the character of Sherlock Holmes, which are generally considered milestones in the field of crime fiction. Doyle wrote short stories featuring the famous detective. The story is narrated by the character, Dr.Watson, originally a physician.
