LEARNING OUTCOMES

LISTENING

Students will be able to

- Listen to passages, poems, stories, dialogues and commentaries and answer short questions, complete tabular columns and fill in the blanks based on their comprehension.
- Listen and note down exact details for further reference.
- Listen critically to understand content and distinguish main points from supporting details.

SPEAKING

- Speak effectively with the help of the guidelines given.
- Frame questions to elicit the desired response, and respond appropriately to questions.
- Take active part in discussions on familiar topics.

WRITING

- Plan and organize and present ideas coherently in different kinds of formats and genres.
- Organize thoughts and ideas to write for various purposes (formal, informal).
- Use a range of grammatical structures and vocabulary accurately and appropriately, to extend, link and develop ideas with sensitivity to meaning and intent.

LITERATURE

- Read literary (both contemporary and classic) books in English and understand, interpret, evaluate and respond to the characters, plot and setting.
- Discuss authors' intent/ purpose or ideas.
- Discuss texts using own knowledge and experience.

GRAMMAR

- Use verb forms, phrases, sentence types and structure words accurately.
- Use a range of grammatical structures fairly accurately and appropriately to support the four skills.
- Correct and edit short passages for accuracy.

VOCABULARY

- Learn the meaning of new words and use them when speaking and writing .
- Use context clues to determine the meanings of unfamiliar words.
- Use print and electronic vocabulary tools such as dictionaries.

EXTENDED READING

- Read short stories and other longer, standard literary pieces.
- Read for pleasure and general understanding.
- Review and comment on the events, characters, plot and language in the book or stories.

10th English_Listening Passage.indd 219 28-11-2022 18:30:21